6. be willing to attend and facilitate meetings and help the committees.
7. instruct Conference Program Coordinator to provide time in programs for the Professional Standards Program workshop.
8. instruct Conference Program Coordinator to provide time in programs for networking sessions for office personnel in any or all of the following areas: elementary, secondary, higher education, educational service and regional centers, special education, administration, and future conferences. Affiliate Presidents Council should be scheduled to meet earlier than the Retirees networking sessions.
9. coordinate with registrar to have someone at registration table solely committed to welcoming new members, guests and presenters; inform them of the happenings for that first day, evening, weekend; and in general just to be free to address any questions or concerns they may have. (Possibly use retirees for this purpose.)
10. develop a menu for all meals at the Board Meetings and conferences with the approval of the President.
11. coordinate with registrar to have the person or persons assigned to welcoming duty at the registration table informed as to who the presenters are and where they are to report. Frequently presenters arrive prior to the program chairman being available to greet them. They like to view where they will be presenting and whether everything is in place.
12. provide information for all people working at the registration table so they are familiar with the layout of the hotel and they can assist those in need.
13. coordinate with conference task force and President where the responsibility lies for the writing of personal welcome notes that will be placed in new member packets. This may be the duty of the President or possibly become a function for the task force coordinator. Retirees can also assist with this task.

14. coordinate colors of ribbons for attendees--use red ribbons for new members, yellow and green ribbons for first timers and guests. Ribbons are to be passed forward from registrar. Refer to Conference Coordinator's file for clarification as to who is to purchase the ribbons.
15. contact conference task force at least one week before the Executive Board meetings to be sure they have the necessary reports ready.
16. provide an orientation packet to be made available for each conference.
17. provide a membership service center (table) along with a technology service center someplace near Special Projects table so that prospective new members and/or members can ask questions and receive answers. (Coordinate with Hospitality chairman, Special Projects chairman, and Technology chairman.)
18. assign officers and board members to tables for meal functions so that new members have the opportunity to meet and converse with them.
19. be responsible for a New Member Orientation at each conference.
20. coordinate with conference chairman to assign mentor to each new member.
21. keep Executive Board and membership informed as to the dates and locations of future conferences.
22. perform any other tasks as assigned by the Executive Board or President.
23. forward all official records to successor at end of term or the president by June 30.

Ongoing Future Considerations:

1. discuss whether there should be an increase in the registration fee.
2. discuss how fellowship can be increased; consider assigned seating at luncheon.

MEMBER EDUCATIONAL REIMBURSEMENT PROGRAM CHAIRMAN

The Member Educational Reimbursement Program shall provide for reimbursement to IAEOP members who successfully complete job-related coursework. The amount of reimbursement for tuition and other related costs will be determined by the Executive Board.
